

Search & Rescue Train the Trainer

March 7, 2017

8:15 - 3:30 pm

Presenter: Fire Captain Patrick Kelley

Captain Kelley has 16 years with the Ventura County Fire Department. He is a FEMA Hazardous Materials Specialist, CERT Instructor and has a B.S. Degree in Emergency Management.

Training intended for:

- Risk Managers,
- Safety Coordinators, and
- designated training staff

Training designed to:

Train the trainer on basic search and rescue skills needed to prepare your Disaster Response Search & Rescue Team in your district.

MUST ATTEND BOTH PARTS 1 & 2:

MORNING - PART 1 of 2 at:

Ventura County Office of Education
Conference and Educational Services Center,
Salon A
5100 Adolfo Road
Camarillo, CA 93012

8:15-8:30 am Sign-in and light breakfast

8:30 am-12:00 pm Training

12:00-1:00 pm Travel to station, lunch & part 2

Participants will learn to:

- Prepare a Search & Rescue Team
- Size up an incident
- Search systematically

AFTERNOON - PART 2 of 2 at:

Ventura County Fire Department
102 Durley Avenue
Camarillo, CA 93010

12:00-1:00 pm Travel to fire station. Box lunch served upon arrival.
(Carpooling recommended)

1:00-3:30 pm Skills training and practice

Participants should wear comfortable, casual clothes and will have opportunities to practice:

- Manipulative skills, work in groups and perform as both team leaders and team members during hands-on simulations.
- Perform life saving skills
- Extricate trapped victims using hand tools
- Package patients for transportation to a treatment site

Registration Fee: $90

Register at: <http://vcoe.k12oms.org/1616-126733> *

Light breakfast, lunch, materials and 5 R.N. CEU's provided.
Registration deadline is Feb 17.

A limited # of spaces are allotted per district. Registration verification will be sent to registrants by Feb 22. Maximum of 40 total participants. No refunds. No drop-ins.

Questions, contact Kris Trotsky at ktrotsky@vcoe.org or (805) 437-1370.

"Commitment to Quality Education for All"

