

Presented by Stanley C. Mantooth, Ventura County Superintendent of Schools
Coordinated Claudia Frandsen, Leadership Support Services

Restorative Justice in Schools:

Using Restorative Approaches to build: community, social emotional learning, restorative discipline, and trauma informed.

Facilitator Training

Jessalyn Nash, M.A.

Restorative Justice
Trainer and Author

Claudia Frandsen
Daryton Ramsey

Restorative
Approaches Coaches

Training Overview

Day 1

- ◆ Background on Restorative Justice in Schools
- ◆ Trauma Informed Care, SEL building community

Day 2

- ◆ Restorative Dialogue

Day 3

- ◆ Restorative Dialogue/Q&A Sessions/Circles
- ◆ Circles/Data Collection/Evaluation

Participate in FREE Ongoing Facilitator
Training Support

Each Participant Will Receive
Certificate of Completion*

Attendance at all 3 days Required*

Training also includes:

- ◆ Examples of Implementing Restorative Justice in Schools
- ◆ Case Studies and Role Play
- ◆ How to Provide Feedback and Coaching
- ◆ Template for Data Collection
- ◆ Team Building Activities
- ◆ Training Materials
- ◆ Breakfast (Lunch on Your Own)

Target Audience:

- ◆ Administrators, Teachers, Counselors, Behavior Health, Families, Law Enforcement
- ◆ Districts Implementing RJ
- ◆ Team Attendance Encouraged

June 17, 18 & 19, 2019

VCOE, Conference & Educational Services Center
5100 Adolfo Road, Camarillo, CA

8:30 am - 3:00 pm (Check-in 8:15)

For More Information Contact:

Natasha at nhart@vcoe.org or (805) 437-1337

Registration Fee:

$599 - All 3 Days

No Refunds, Substitutions accepted

Online Registration Only

<http://vcoe.k12oms.org/1619-165587>

Registration Deadline June 13, 2019

"Commitment to Quality Education for All"