The Ventura County Office of Education's complaint procedure provides for an immediate, thorough and objective investigation of any sexual harassment claim, appropriate disciplinary action against one found to have engaged in prohibited sexual harassment, and appropriate remedies to any victim of harassment.

Any Ventura County Office of Education employee who feels they are a victim of sexual harassment or are aware of the harassment of others, must provide a written or verbal complaint to their immediate supervisor or to the Director of Human Resources as soon as possible. The complaint must include details of the incident(s), names of individuals involved, and the names of any witnesses. Supervisors should immediately refer all harassment complaints to the Director of Human Resources.

All incidents of sexual harassment that are reported will be investigated. The Director of Human Resources or a designee will immediately undertake an effective, thorough and objective investigation of the harassment allegations. The investigation will be conducted in a manner which protects the complainant and maintains the individuals' confidentiality and privacy of the parties involved, to the extent possible.

The investigation will be completed and a determination regarding the harassment alleged will be made and communicated to the employee(s) who complained and the accused harasser(s).

If it is determined that sexual harassment has occurred, effective remedial action commensurate with the circumstances will be instigated. Appropriate action will also be taken to deter any future harassment.
