

Healthy, Safe & Supportive Schools The Commercial Sexual Exploitation of Youth

Presented by Stanley C. Mantooth, Ventura County Superintendent of Schools Coordinated by Comprehensive Health and Prevention Programs & Foster Youth Services Coordinating Program

Nola Brantley Speaks has partnered with Ventura County Office of Education to bring "The Commercial Sexual Exploitation of Youth." This is an introductory course that provides an overview of commercial sexual exploitation. The training will discuss risk factors for involvement in CSEY, warning signs that youth may be involved in CSEY, pathways of entry, needs of CSEY survivors, and resiliency factors. This training is essential for social workers, probation officers, psychologists, clinicians, advocates, teachers, school administrators and school counselors who work with at-risk youth.

Participants will be able to:

- ◆ Define CSEY
- ◆ Identify at least 3 examples of CSEY
- ◆ Increase ability to identify youth as CSEY
- ◆ Describe the emotional, spiritual, physical, and social impact of CSE
- ◆ List at least 3 needs of youth involved in CSE
