The “CSBA Roadshow” Comes to Ventura County

Investing in Education, Empowering Local Communities

The California School Boards Association is launching new initiatives to help board members deal with their most pressing local challenges. They’re previewing their plans for a new grassroots network, adequacy campaign and enhanced member training in Roadshow events across the state. Their Ventura County stop will be as special guests at the VCSBA Dinner Meeting on October 2. Don’t miss this chance to learn what the CSBA will be doing to address these issues of local concern:

- Relief from escalating pension costs
- Career and technical education
- Supporting English learners
- Increased school funding
- Teacher shortages
- Enhanced professional development for staff
- Increased afterschool enrichment
- Higher investment in STEAM education
- Greater access to technology and learning material
- Improved parent engagement
